A BUNCH OF SPRING BLOSSOMS

Legislative Candidates Crowding to the Front in Franklin County.

The Money-Lenders Force Borrowers to Pledge Themselves to Laird-Supporters of Van Wyck Urged to Organize, BLOOMINGTON, Neb., March 1, 1886.-Correspondence of the BEE.]-Even at this early date the political pot is well filled and plenty of fuel apparently to keep it burning for the next seven months. The flame is being continually fanned by the breeze created by constant discussion. Among the farmers I find a decided incline towards Van Wyck, who is the undoubted choice of ninety-nine hundredths of the farmers, in fact of every reputable citizen favoring honest government. Capitalists and monopolists, as a rule, favor Laird, and it is probable-yes, certainty, that bribery and coercion will be resorted to, in both the convention and among the people, and, by this foul and deplorable means, many will experience an apparent "change of heart." How far this corruption will be carried, or to what extent it will influence voters and delegates, remains to be seen. Prominent among the outrageous and nefarious schemes of the plotters and destroyers of justice is the one now a bornin' in the capitalistic ring in this county, as follows: It is safe to say that nine out of ten of the citizens of this county are earrying farm or chattel mortgages, or notes, on which they are paying interest at rates of from 10 to 12 per cent. a year on real estate mortgages, up to as high as 60 per cent. on chattles and notes. In the majority of cases, the makers of these "instruments of torture" are unable to "lift" them when they become due, and instead thereof, they pay part and renew their "paper." The price on which a renewal is to be made, is that the appli-cant vote for a Lard delegation in the convention, or a Laird representative from this district. If he refuses, they swoop down upon him and rob him of his house, or take from him his horses, on which he depends for a livelihood.

The above simply illustrates one of the many outrageous and inhuman schemes which will be used, and effectively too, throughout Western Nebraska, to elect Jimerax Laird to the senate.

I know of a candidate—for—the legislature who, to-day, were these brutal fiends to demand it of him, would not dare to refuse to vote for Laird, though he is an outspoken Van Wyck man from princi ple, and a positive defender of the rights of the people, but he is under the thumb screw of torture, and actually does not own his own will.

Promises exacted under such penalties should not become binding, but some men value a promise, under any circumstances, as final.

A section of the compiled statute of Nebraska makes it the duty of the voters to declare, by ballot, their choice for United States senator, at the general election first proceeding the election of a senator by the legislature. I have often thought that this would be a good plan, and I still think so, for Van Wyck, under the choice of a vast majority, and our legislature would have to be corrupt indeed if it did not heed this proclamation from the people. As outspoken and avowed candidates now, for representatives in this county, we have George Adams, a young but aspiring person, who has never been credited with a superabundance of good sense; R. D. Ready, of Washington precinct, chairman of the late republican county convention, and who is on record as saying that parliamentary rules would hardly govern such a congregation of cat-tle; Robert Glenn, of West Salem, who occupied a position in the last legislature as an alleged representative from this district, but who inade no record for bet-ter ner worse. Besides these men, who have openly avowed themselves, there are scores of others who would be more or less willing to sacrifice themselves to save their country. C. W. Morrow, it is said, would not object, though it is probable he will have no cause to. J. E. Kelly, who, by means most foul, was de-feated in the convention of 1884, to let in Bob. Glenn, would probably not object to the nomination, though the ring would again object to him. Frank W. Barber. a prominent, honorable and pleasant young man, would, we are informed, submit that barkis is willin', but, again, the ring don't want him. O. G. Bailey, a stordy farmer and a Van Wyck man, would make an admirable candidate. S. W. Switzer, at present register in the United States land office, is a positive United States land office, is a positive Van Wyck man, and would, undoubtedly, accept the nomination, and with a reasonably fair show, would be elected. A. M. de Clercq, of Moline, is a candidate. Thos. Moore, of Macon, is understood to be a candidata, from force of circumstances (he was defeated for com-missioner last fall). This does not in-clude more than half, among the balance being Ira Cadman, the irrepressible and everlasting candidate for anything. In the above category, I have called attention only to the republicans.

In the democratic list of candidates, l have had my attention called to Frank M. Vancil principal of the normal school. Vancil is altogether too visionary for a representative and perhaps a little too intelligent to attempt to be elected. A. F. More, a prominent young attorney from Ohio, though much talked of, de clines to permit his name to be used. He would vote for a democrat first and Van Leaving the representatives expectant, will give a short digest of our aspirants for the county attorneyship. Among the candidates—positive—and prospective—are Sheppard and Black, the present banker incumbents, appointed by our too-too commissioners, E. A. Fletcher, a not-too well versel attorney of Franklin and too well versed attorney of Franklin, and who has had a "bee in his bonnet" ever who has had a "bee in his bonnet ever since he has been in the county and who will be defeated before he gets into the convention; H. Whitmore, a strong prohibitionist and a careful and energetic man. A few more are yet to hear from.

F. A. Hannan, better known as "the little giant of democracy," has retired from politics.

C. N. A. from polities.

It seems to be common fate in England for a conservative mustry to plunge into some serious colonial enterprisa and then leave the bulk of the work of civiliz-ing to be done by the liberals, who at heart never approved of the venture. It will be difficult now for the liberals to re-linquish Burmah, but the work of con-quering it will be far more serious than was the work of formal annexation,

AMONG THE MARTS OF TRADE

Fairly Good Export Demand the Only Factor of Interest in Wheat.

BUSINESS LIFELESS AND DULL

Provisions the Only Commodity of a Speculative Character That Showed Any Activity-Live Stock and General Reports.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

WHEAT-The markets were generally bearish to-day, and speculative trading in grain was not of a large volume. In the wheat pit the prevailing tone was one of duliness in fact, and barring occasional spurts of activity the business passing was underan average volume, outside orders being noticeably scarce. Room traders managed to keep the ball in motion, but in the absence of disturbing influences the situation was comparatively tame and featureless. For some reason or other the crowd has shown great indifference to "pointers" lately. Not even the crop question seems to cut any figure yet. Wheat opened at yesterday's figures-841c for May, and for the first two hours fluctuated between 83)4@84%, the downward movement being checked by the privilege traders. Under the lead of Hutchinson the market received a good deal of pounding, Kent also being credited with free sales through his backers, whi e Ream & Bliss were quiet buyers, so it was said. The decrease 1 reported visible supply was not far from what had been counted upon, and the bulls called attention to the fact that five-eighths of it took place at interior points. Consols were two points off, but that went for naught, and about the only encouraging feature to holders was posted clearances at New York yesterday of 103,000 bushels of wheat and 171,000 bushels of corn. Toward noon the market crept back to the opening prices on reported taking of fourteen boat loads more. During the last half hour of the regular board there was a stronger tone on a report by a local news bureau that a change was likely to occur in the head of the imperial cabinet of Austria, and that the prospects for war in the Balkans were thereby increased. One o'clock quotations stood at 84%e seller for May, or 36e above the lowest point of the session. The winter wheat markets are relatively stronger than our own. MINOR GRAINS-Corn and oats were fairly active in early trading, but speculative interated as usual within a narrow limit, Provisions-In provisions interest was againl argely confined to pork, which opened a shade above last night's closing, but under a sharp raid shortly after the opening the market broke off 25c. Subsequently there was something of a recovery, and at the close trade showed quite a strong under-tone. The day's range for May pork was $10,35@10,60, and at 1 o'clock the market stood at $10.53%. Lard and short ribs were steadier than pork, and upon the whole a trifle stronger. AFTERNOON BOARD-Moderate activity est in both deals subsided. Later prices fluctu-prevailed on the late board in both wheat and provisions. The fourteen boat loads of wheat reported taken for export earlier grew to nineteen of wheat and six of corn, together with ten of wheat on milling account (equal to 232,000 bushels of wheat), and this gave to the market additional strength, May property touching 85c in the 1,000 bushel crowd. Final closings were 16@14c better than at 1 p. m. Mess pork was 7 ic lower, lard easier and ribs steady. 2:40 p. m.—Puts on May wheat, 84%c sellers; calls, 85% e bid.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK. CHICAGO, March 2,-[Special Teleram. | — Cattle — Receipts were moderate. The total for yesterday and to-day were no more than have been received and readily disposed of on many a Monday, but buyers were disappointed in not having more cattle, and were unwilling to show very much interest in trade, lest they be compelled to pay gher prices instead of getting cattle cheaper, as they expected to do this week. Among the offerings to-day were many Texas cattle which had had more or less corn. They sold at $4.00@4.30. Dressed beef men paid $5.45 for some choice cattle, and $5.55 was paid for some shipping steers. The general market for fat cattle to-day was not quotably altered. Values were strong for useful fat cattle, but not quotably higher. Common to fair cattle, which were quite plentiful, sold at barely steady rates, and slowly. On the whole,

Shipping steers, 1950 to 1500 lbs, $4,90@5.60; 1200 to 1350 lbs, $4.00@5.15; 950 to 1200 lbs, 83.90@4.59. Hogs-Trade was fairly active and prices bout a nickle higher than on Monday, but 100015c lower than a week ago to-day. The best heavy made $4.35@4.45, and packing sorts $4.10@4.30, with light and assorted light at $4,10 a4.25. Packing and shipping, however, there was no quotable change,

250 to 400 lbs, $4,15@4.45.

FINANCIAL. New York, March 2.-Money-On call, nsy at 13,002 per cent. Prime Mercantile Paper—4,005 per cent. Stenling Exchange—Unchanged at $4.87% for sixty days, and $4.89% for de-Streams Exchange and St. S9/4 for demand.

Governments—Active and strong.

Stocks—A decided change came over the spirit of speculation in stocks. Business continued dull throughout the forenoon and with the exception of some show of weakness in early dealings, prices were firm without material change. The market closed strong at or near the highest figures of the day with a gain of 4½ per cent for Lackawanna, 3½ for Delaware & Hudson, 3 for Reading and 1½ for Jersey Central. Erie preferred made a net advance of 2½ per cent.
